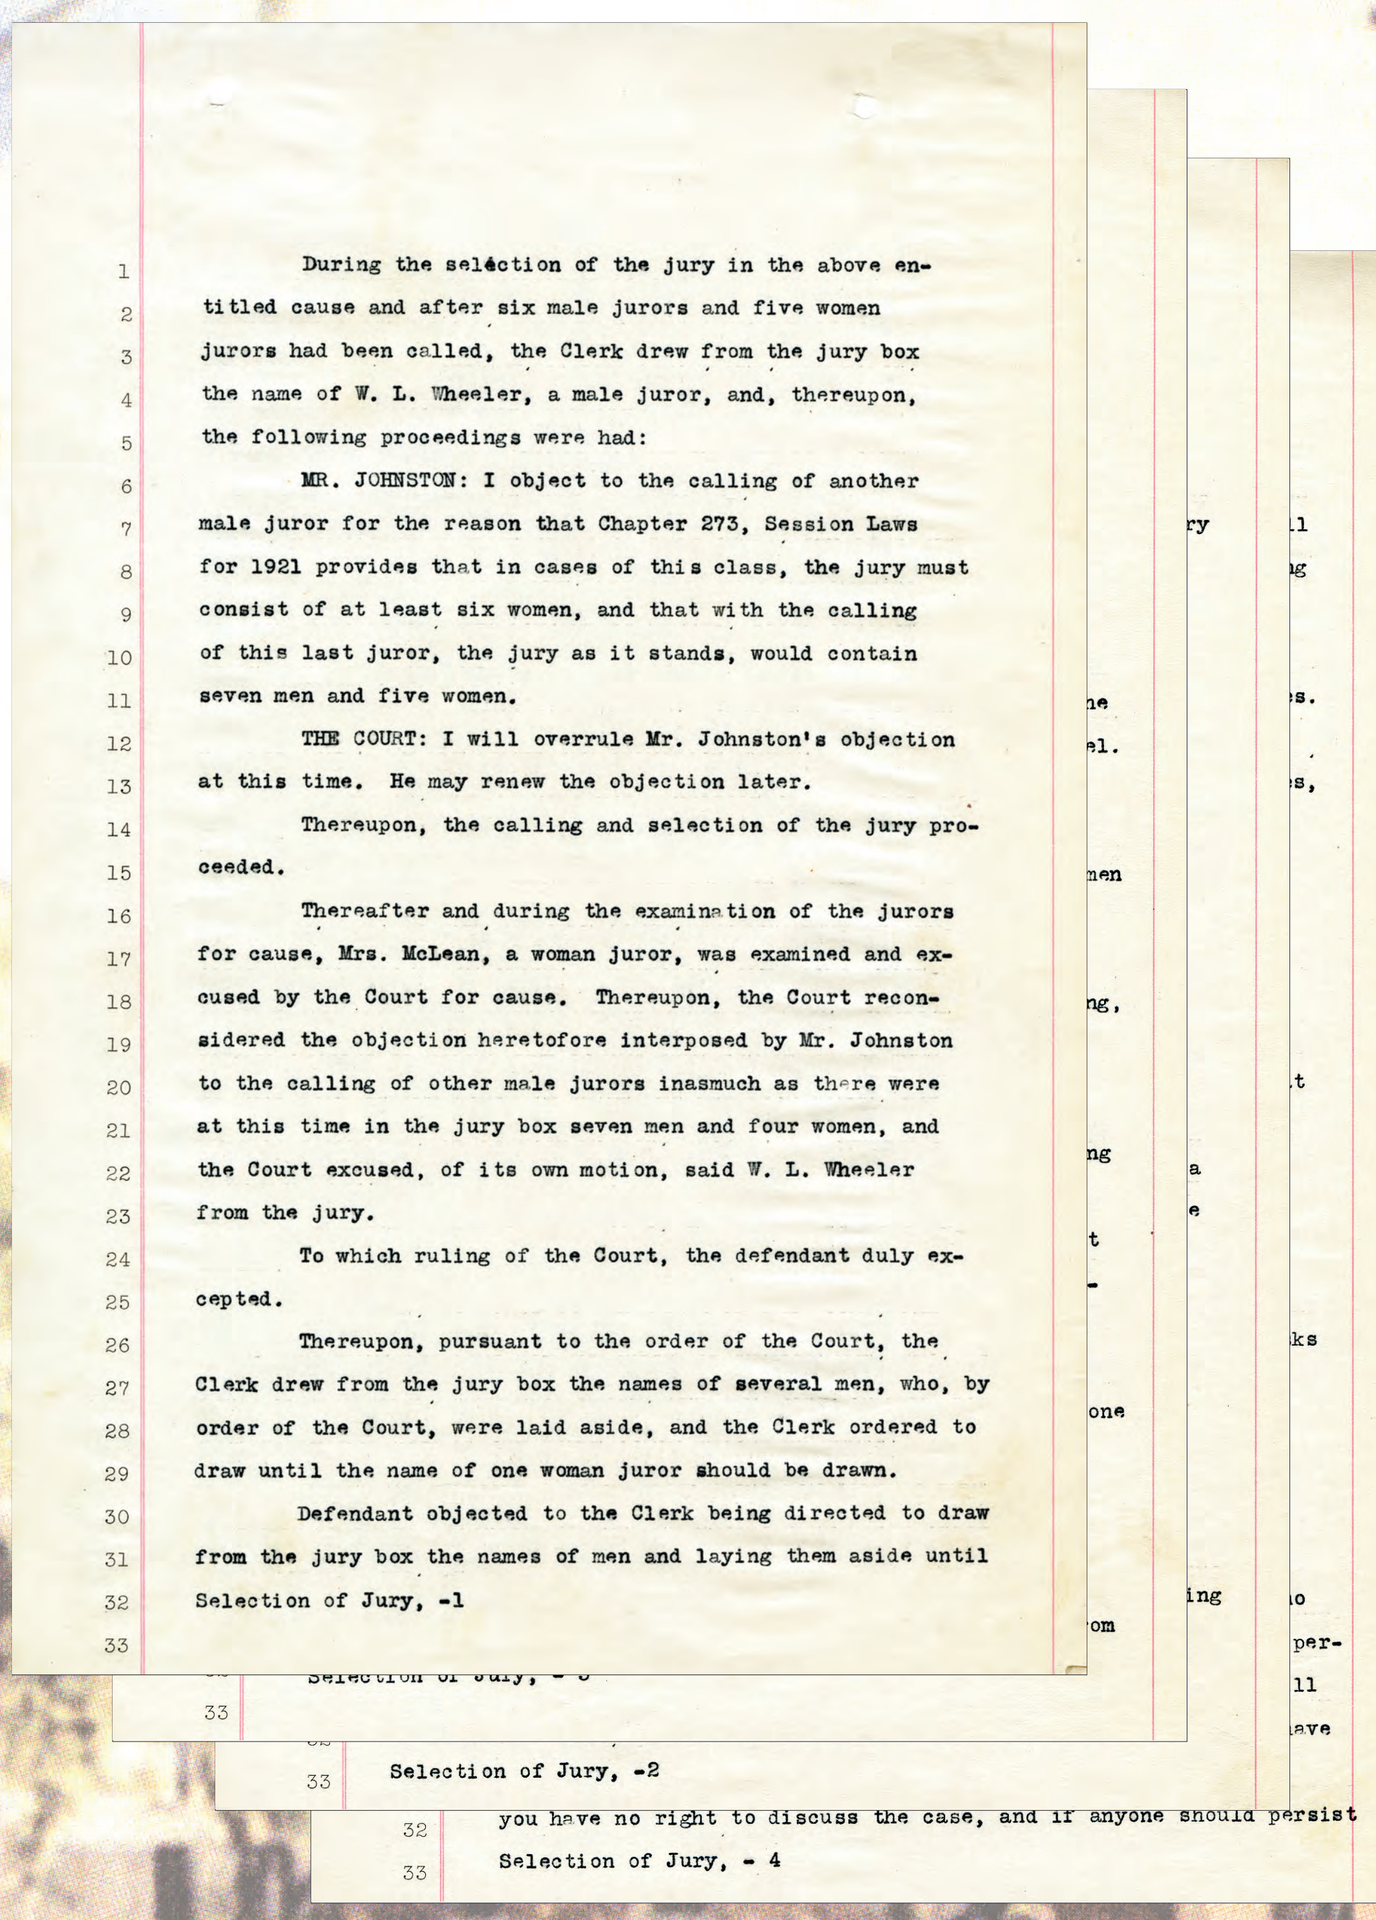
I found it in the Archives.

Supreme Court Case File regarding 1921 rape case in Lane County



During the selection of the jury in the above entitled cause and after six male jurors and five women jurors had been called, the Clerk drew from the jury box the name of W. L. Wheeler, a male juror, and, thereupon, the following proceedings were had:

MR. JOHNSTON: I object to the calling of another male juror for the reason that Chapter 273, Session Laws for 1921 provides that in cases of this class, the jury must consist of at least six women, and that with the calling of this last juror, the jury as it stands, would contain seven men and five women.

THE COURT: I will overrule Mr. Johnston's objection at this time. He may renew the objection later.

Thereupon, the calling and selection of the jury proceeded.

Thereafter and during the examination of the jurors for cause, Mrs. McLean, a woman juror, was examined and excused by the Court for cause. Thereupon, the Court reconsidered the objection heretofore interposed by Mr. Johnston to the calling of other male jurors inasmuch as there were at this time in the jury box seven men and four women, and the Court excused, of its own motion, said W. L. Wheeler from the jury.

To which ruling of the Court, the defendant duly excepted.

Thereupon, pursuant to the order of the Court, the Clerk drew from the jury box the names of several men, who, by order of the Court, were laid aside, and the Clerk ordered to draw until the name of one woman juror should be drawn.

Defendant objected to the Clerk being directed to draw from the jury box the names of men and laying them aside until

Selection of Jury, -1

Selection of Jury, -2

you have no right to discuss the case, and if anyone should persist

Selection of Jury, - 4

Supreme Court Case # 4524, Oregon State Archives

Exhibit from Supreme Court Case #4524, photograph by Tim Backer

Background image from http://Courts.oregon.gov/Lane/Pages/courthouseHistory.aspx