

October
2011

A Oregon Archives Month

Celebrating Oregon's Communities

1. Fishing on the Oregon coast, ca. 1900.
Oregon State Archives, Salem.
2. President McClelland, his family, and Pacific University students at Herrick Hall, circa 1890.
Pacific University Archives, Forest Grove.
3. Albany College students at Newport Beach, 1896.
Lewis & Clark College Archives, Portland.
4. Willamette Methodist Church Dedication Day, 1909.
Old Oregon Photos, West Linn.
5. The Hubbard Community Band.
Oregon State Library, Salem.
6. Women's Exercise Class, 1970.
Oregon Jewish Museum, Portland.
7. The Salem dancing club, including two Oregon Governors, ca. 1912.
Oregon State Library, Salem.
8. Charles Erskine Scott Wood with his wife and grandchildren, ca. 1920.
Lewis & Clark College Archives, Portland.
9. Encampment at the Pendleton Roundup.
Oregon State Archives, Salem.
10. Oregon Journal Juniors in parade at 1935 Oregon State Fair.
Oregon State Library, Salem.
11. Inauguration ceremony of Albany College President Alfred M. Williams, 1920.
Lewis & Clark College Archives, Portland.
12. The Japanese Christian Church in Salem on the steps of the First Presbyterian Church, Easter, April 15, 1933.
Oregon State Library, Salem.
13. The Pacific University Football team, 1894.
Pacific University Archives, Forest Grove.
14. Ben Selling breaking ground for the Ahavaht Achim synagogue, 1930.
Oregon Jewish Museum, Portland.
15. Sephardic Jews in Purim costumes, ca. 1922.
Oregon Jewish Museum, Portland.
16. May Day Celebration at Oregon Normal School, 1920.
Western Oregon University Archives, Monmouth.
17. Cook at the Salem School for the Blind, ca. 1890.
Oregon Historical Society, Portland.
18. Picnic group at Rock Creek.
Oregon State Library, Salem.
19. Members of the Williams Avenue YWCA, ca. 1945.
Lewis & Clark College Archives, Portland.