Records Retention Schedule

Edition: April 2020

Organizational Placement

Agency: Oregon Governor's Office

Program: Administration

Schedule Number: 2019-0005

Program Description

The Governor is the chief executive of Oregon. The Oregon Constitution charges the Governor with faithfully executing the laws, making recommendations to the Legislature and transacting all necessary business of state government.

The Governor provides leadership, planning and coordination for the executive branch of state government. She/he appoints many department and agency heads within the executive branch and members to nearly 300 policymaking, regulatory and advisory boards and commissions. The Governor proposes a two-year budget to the Legislature, recommends a legislative program each regular session and may also call special sessions. She/he reviews all bills passed by the Legislature, may veto measures she/he believes are not in the public interest and shall fill vacancies by appointment.

The Governor chairs the State Land Board, which manages state-owned lands, acts as the superintendent of public instruction, directs state government coordination with local and federal governments and is commander-in-chief of the state's military forces.

The Governor appoints judges to fill vacancies in judicial office, has extradition authority and may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons of criminal sentences.

Agency: Oregon Governor's Office

Program: Constituent Services

Program Description

The Governor's Constituent Services Office is generally the first point of contact for constituents who wish to communicate with Oregon's executive branch. Constituent Services staff provide resources and assistance for constituents who have complaints, problems, questions, ideas, and suggestions about state government. Staff collaborate with the Governor's policy advisors, communications team, and other Governor's office staff, noting issues in state government that need attention. The aim of Constituent Services is to treat all inquiries fairly, to examine each situation objectively, and to respond to Oregon's constituents in a clear and helpful way.

Organizational Placement

Schedule Number: 2019-0005

Agency: Oregon Governor's Office

Program: Executive Appointments

Program Description

The Governor appoints nearly 300 policymaking, regulatory and advisory boards and commissions. Members of Oregon state boards and commission are vital participants in the policy-making, regulation, advisory and advocacy efforts for a wide variety of issues affecting all Oregonians. The board system contributes to the success of Oregon state government and is key to bringing local citizens' talent and interest to the state level. This office tracks expiring terms and vacancies and identifies candidates for vacant positions and for verifying credentials and coordinating background investigations. It is also responsible for obtaining political clearances and for managing the confirmation process with the state legislature.

Records Retention Schedule

Edition: April 2020

Organizational Placement

Agency: Oregon Governor's Office

Program: General Counsel

Schedule Number: 2019-0005

Program Description

Governors face varied, complex and numerous legal issues. Some relate to formal responsibilities of the office, such as making appointments to the state judicial branch, deciding whether to grant clemency to state prison inmates, managing government-to-government relations with the nine federally recognized Oregon tribes and preparing the state to deal with emergency and crisis situations including executive orders. Other legal issues are less predictable, including investigations related to ethics standards the Governor has established for his or her administration. The Governor's legal counsel manages legal issues for the Governor and the Governor's office.
