R. P. Garhart
Secretary of State
Preamble.

We the people of the State of Oregon do ordain and establish this Constitution, to form a social compact, to establish, order, maintain, and perpetuate, the liberty of the state; and according to this Constitution to establish a government for their peace, safety, and happiness; and they have at all times a right to alter, reform, or abolish this government in such manner as they may think proper.

Article 1.

Bill of Rights

1. We declare that all men, when they form a social compact, are equal in right; that all power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their peace, safety, and happiness; and they have at all times a right to alter, reform, or abolish this government in such manner as they may think proper.

2. All men shall be secure in their National right, to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own conscience.

3. No law shall in any case whatever control the free exercise, and enjoyment of religious opinions, or interfere with the rights of conscience.
4. - No religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office of trust or profit.

5. - No money shall be drawn from the Treasury for the benefit of any religious or theological institution, nor shall any money be appropriated for the payment of any religious services in either house of the Legislative Assembly.

6. - No person shall be rendered incompetent as a witness, or favor in consequence of his opinions on matters of religious questions, in any Court of Justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony.

7. - The mode of administering an oath or affirmation shall be such as may be most consistent with, and binding upon the conscience of the person to whom such oath or affirmation may be administered.

8. - No law shall be passed restraining the free expression of opinion, or restricting the right to speak, write, or print freely on any subject whatever; but every person shall be responsible for the abuse of this right.
9. — No law shall violate the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable search or seizure; and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or thing to be seized.

10. — No court shall be secret, but justice shall be administered, openly and without purchase, completely and without delay, and every man shall have remedy by due course of law for injury done him in his person, property, or reputation.

11. — In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall have the right to public trial by an impartial jury in the county in which the offence shall have been committed; to be heard by himself, and counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof; to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor.
12. No person shall be put in jeopardy twice for the same offence, nor be compelled in any criminal prosecution to testify against himself.

13. No person arrested, or confined in jail, shall be treated with unnecessary rigor.

14. Offenses except murder and treason, shall be bailable by sufficient sureties. Murder or treason shall not be bailable, when the proof is evident or the presumption strong.

15. Laws for the punishment of crime shall be founded on the principles of reformation, and not of vindictive justice.

16. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed. Cruel and unusual punishments shall not be inflicted, but all penalties shall be proportioned to the offense. In all criminal cases whatever, the jury shall have the right to determine the law, and the facts under the direction of the court, as to the law, and the right of new trial, as in civil cases.
17. — In all civil cases the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.

18. — Private property shall not be taken for public use, nor the particular services of any man be demanded, without just compensation; nor except in case of the State, without such compensation first assessed and tendered.

19. — There shall be no imprisonment for debt, except in case of fraud or absconding debtors.

20. — No law shall be passed granting to any citizen or class of citizens privileges or immunities which upon the same terms shall not equally belong to all citizens.

21. — No post factum law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall ever be passed, nor shall any law be passed, the taking effect of which shall be made to depend upon any authority, except as provided in this Constitution; provided, that laws locating the Capitol of the State, locating counties, and submitting town and corporate acts, and other local and special laws may take effect, or not, upon a vote of the electors interested.

23. The operation of the laws shall never be suspended, except by the Authority of the Legislative Assembly.

23. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless in Case of rebellion, or invasion, or when the public safety require it.

24. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid or comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court.

25. No Conviction shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of estate.

26. No law shall be passed restraining any of the inhabitants of the State from assembling together, in a peaceable manner, to consult for their common good; nor from instructing their Representatives; nor from applying to the Legislature for redress of grievance.
27. — The people shall have the right to bear arms for the defense of themselves, and the State, but the Military shall be kept in strict subordination to the civil power.

28. — No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, except in the manner prescribed by law.

29. — No law shall be passed granting any title of Nobility, or conferring hereditary distinctions.

30. — No law shall be passed prohibiting emigration from the State.

31. — White foreigners who are, or may hereafter become residents of this State shall enjoy the same rights in respect to the possession, enjoyment, and descent of property as native born citizens. And the Legislative Assembly shall have power to restrain, and regulate the immigration to this State of persons not qualified to become citizens of the United States.
32. — No tax or duty shall be imposed without the consent of the People, or their Representatives in the Legislative Assembly; and all taxation shall be equal and uniform. —

33. — This enumeration of rights and privileges shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the People. —
Article 11.

Suffrage and Elections

Section No. 1.
All elections shall be free and equal.

Section No. 2.
In all elections not otherwise provided for by this Constitution, every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the State during the six months immediately preceding such election, and every white male of foreign birth of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the United States one year and shall have resided in this State during the six months immediately preceding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States one year preceding such election, conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, authorized by law.
Section No. 3.

No idiot, or insane person, shall be entitled to the privileges of an elector, and the privilege of an elector shall be forfeited by a conviction of any crime which is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Section No. 4.

For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained, or lost a residence, in reason of his presence, or absence, while employed in the service of the United States, or of this State; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any Seminary of Learning; nor while kept at any almshouse, or other asylum, at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison.

Section No. 5.

No soldier, seaman, or marine in the Army, or Navy of the United States, or of their allies, shall be deemed to have acquired a residence in this State, in consequence of having been stationed within the same; nor shall any such soldier, seaman, or marine have the right to vote.
Section No. 6
No Negro, Chinaman, or Mulatto shall have the right of suffrage.

Section No. 7
Every person shall be disqualified from holding office, during the term for which he may have been elected, who shall have given, or offered a bribe, threat, or reward to procure his election.

Section No. 8
The Legislative Assembly shall enact laws to support the privilege of free suffrage, prescribing the manner of regulating and conducting elections, and prohibiting under adequate penalties all undue influence therein from power, bribery, tumult, and other improper conduct.

Section No. 9
Every person who shall give, or accept a challenge to fight a duel, or who shall knowingly carry to another person such challenge, or who shall agree to go out of the State to fight a duel, shall be ineligible to any office of trust or profit.
Section No. 10.

No person holding a lucrative office, or appointment under the United States, or under this State, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislative Assembly, nor shall any person hold more than one lucrative office at the same time, except as in this Constitution expressly permitted. Provided, that Officers in the Militia, to which there is attached no annual salary, and the Office of Post Master, where the compensation does not exceed One Hundred Dollars per annum, shall not be deemed lucrative.

Section No. 11.

No person who may hereafter be a collector or holder of public moneys, shall be eligible to any office of trust or profit, until he shall have accounted for, and paid over according to law, all sums for which he may be liable.

Section No. 12.

In all cases in which it is provided that an office shall not be filled by the same person more than a certain number of years continuously, an appointment pro tempore shall not be reckoned a part of that term.
Section No. 13.
In all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, electors shall be free from arrest in going to elections, during their attendance there, and in returning from the same; and no elector shall be obliged to duty in the Militia on any day of election, except in time of war, or public danger.

Section No. 14.
General Elections shall be held on the first Monday of June, biennially.

Section No. 15.
In all elections by the Legislative Assembly, or by either branch thereof, votes shall be given openly or viva voce, and not by ballot, forever; and in all elections by the people, votes shall be given openly, or viva voce, until the Legislative Assembly shall otherwise direct.

Section No. 16.
In all elections held by the people, under this Constitution, the person, or persons who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected.
Section No. 17.
All qualified electors shall vote in the election precinct in the county where they may reside, for county officers, and in any county in the state for state officers, or in any county of a congressional district in which such electors may reside, for Members of Congress.
Article III

Distribution of Powers

Section No. 1.

The powers of the Government shall be divided into three separate departments, the Legislative, the Executive including the administrative, and the Judicial; and no person chargeable with official duties under one of these departments, shall exercise any of the functions of another, except as in this constitution expressly provided.
Article IV

Legislative Department

Section No. 1.
The legislative authority of the State shall be vested in the Legislative Assembly, which shall consist of a Senate, and House of Representatives. — The style of every bill shall be "Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon," and no law shall be enacted except by bill. —

Section No. 2.
The Senate shall consist of sixteen, and the House of Representatives of thirty-four members, which number shall not be increased until the year Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, after which time the Legislative Assembly may increase the number of Senators and Representatives, always keeping as near as may be the same ratio as to the number of Senators and Representatives: Provided that the Senate shall never exceed thirty, and the House of Representatives sixty members.
Section N°3.
The Senators and Representatives shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties or districts into which the State may, from time to time, be divided by law.

Section N°4.
The Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Representatives for the term of two years from the day next after their general election. Provided, however, that the Senators elected at the first session of the Legislative Assembly under this constitution shall be divided by lot into two equal classes, as nearly as may be, and the Seats of Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of two years, and those of the second class at the expiration of four years, so that one half as nearly as possible shall be chosen biennially forever thereafter. And in case of the increase of the number of Senators, they shall be so annexed by lot to one or the other of the two classes, as to keep them as nearly equal as possible.

Section N°5.
The Legislative Assembly shall in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and every ten years after, cause an enumeration to be made of all the white population of the State.

Section No. 6
The number of Senators and Representatives shall at the session next following an enumeration of the inhabitants of the United States, or this State, be fixed by law, and apportioned among the several counties according to the number of white population in each, and the ratio of Senators and Representatives shall be determined by dividing the whole number of white population of each county, or district, by such respective ratios; and when a fraction shall result from such division, which shall exceed one half of said ratio, such county, or district, shall be entitled to a member for such fraction; and in case any county shall not have the requisite population to entitle such county to a member, then such county shall be attached to some adjoining county for Senatorial or Representative purposes.

Section No. 7
A Senatorial district, when more than one county shall constitute the same, shall be composed of contiguous Counties, and no Countyshold be divided in creating senatorial districts.

Section No. 8.
No person shall be a Senator, or Representative who at the time of his election is not a citizen of the United States; nor any one who has not been for one year, next preceding his election an inhabitant of the county, or district whence he may be chosen. Senators and Representatives shall be at least twenty one years of age.

Section No. 9.
Senators and Representatives in all cases,
except for treason, felony, or breaches of the peace,
shall be privileged from arrest during the session of the Legislative Assembly, and be going to and returning from the same; and shall not be subject to any civil process during the session of the Legislative Assembly, nor during the fifteen days next before the commencement thereof.
Nor shall a member for words uttered in debate in either house, be questioned in any other place.
Section N°10.
The sessions of the Legislative Assembly shall be held biennially at the Capitol of the State commencing on the second Monday of September in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and on the same day of every second year thereafter unless a different day shall have been appointed by law.

Section N°11.
Each house when assembled shall choose its own officers, judge of the election, qualifications, and returns of its own members; determine its own rules of proceeding, and sit upon its own adjournments; but neither house shall without the concurrence of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it may be sitting.

Section N°12.
Two-thirds of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may meet, adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members. A quorum in attendance, if either house fail to effect an organization within the first five days thereafter, the members of the house so failing shall be entitled to no compensation from the end of the said five days until an organization shall have been effected. —

Section No. 13.
Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings on the yeas and nays on any question, shall at the request of any two members, be entered, together with the names of the members demanding the same, on the journal; provided that on motion to adjourn it shall require one tenth of the members present to order the yeas and nays.

Section No. 14.
The doors of each house, and of committees of the whole, shall be kept open, except in such cases as in the opinion of either house may require secrecy.

Section No. 15.
Either house may punish its members for disorderly behavior, and may with the concurrence of two thirds, expel a member; but not a second time for the same cause.

Section No. 16
Either house, during its session, may punish by imprisonment, any person, not a member, who shall have been guilty of disrespect to the house.
by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, but such imprisonment shall not at any time exceed twenty-four hours. —

Section No. 17.
Each house shall have all powers necessary for a branch of the Legislative Department of a free and independent State. —

Section No. 18.
Bills may originate in either house, but may be amended, or rejected in the other; except that bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives. —

Section No. 19.
Every bill shall be read by sections, on three succeeding days in each house: unless in case of emergency, two thirds of the house, where such bill may be pending, shall by a vote of yeas and nays, deem it expedient to dispense with this rule; but the reading of a bill by sections on its final passage, shall in no case be dispensed with, and the vote on the passage of every bill, or joint resolution shall be taken by yeas and nays. —

Section No. 20.
Every act shall embrace but one subject, and matter properly connected therewith, which subject shall be expressed in the title; but if any subject shall be embraced in an act, which shall not be expressed in the title, such act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be expressed in the title.

Section N° 21.
Every act, and joint resolution shall be plainly worded, avoiding as far as practicable the use of technical terms.

Section N° 22.
No act shall ever be revised, or amended by more reference to its title, but the act revised, or section amended shall be set forth, and published at full length.

Section N° 23.
The Legislative Assembly, shall not pass special or local laws, in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say:
Regulating the jurisdiction, and duties of justices of the peace, and of constables;
For the punishment of Crimes, and Misdemeanors;
Regulating the practice in Courts of Justice;
Providing for changing the venue in civil, and Criminal cases;
Granting divorces;
Changing the names of persons;
for laying, opening, and working on highways, and for the election, or appointment of supervisors;
Vacating roads, town plats, streets, alleys, and Public squares;
Summoning and empaneling grand and
petit juries;
For the assessment, and collection of taxes, for local,
County, township, or road purposes;
Providing for supporting Common schools, and for the preservation of school funds;
In relation to interest on money;
Providing for opening and conducting the election of State, County, and Township officers, and designating the places of voting;
Provided for the sale of real estate, belonging to minors, or other persons laboring under legal disabilities, by executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees.

Section No. 24.
Provision may be made by general law, for bringing suit against the State, as to all liabilities occasion-ting after, or existing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution; but no special act authorizing such suit to be brought, or making compensation to any person claiming damages against the State, shall ever be passed.

Section No. 25.
A majority of all the members elected to each House shall be necessary to pass every bill or joint-resolution; and all bills and joint-resolutions so passed, shall be signed by the presiding officers of the respective houses.

Section No. 26.
Any member of either house shall have the right to protest, and have his protest, with his reasons for dissent, entered on the journal.

Section No. 27.
Every statute shall be a public law, unless otherwise declared in the statute itself.

Section No. 28.
No act shall take effect, until ninety days from the end of the session at which the same shall have been passed, except in case of emergency, which emergency shall be declared in the preamble, or in the body of the law.

Section No. 29.
The members of the Legislative Assembly shall receive for their services, a sum not exceeding three dollars a day, from the commencement.
of the session: but such pay shall not exceed in the aggregate one hundred and twenty dollars for per diem allowance for any one session. When convened in session by the Governor, they shall receive three dollars per day; but in an extra session shall continue for a longer period than twenty days. They shall also receive the sum of three dollars for every twenty miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting, on the most usual route. The presiding officers of the Assembly shall in virtue of their office receive an additional compensation equal to one third of their per diem allowance as members.

Section 26.

No Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he may have been elected, be eligible to any office the election to which is vested in the Legislative Assembly, nor shall he be appointed to any civil office of profit which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which shall have been increased, during such time; but this latter provision shall not be construed to apply to any officer elective by the people.
Section No. 31.

The members of the Legislative Assembly shall before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:—I do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Representative as the case may be) according to the best of my ability, and such oath may be administered by the Governor, Secretary of State, or a Judge of the Supreme Court.
Article V

Executive Department

Section No. 1.
The chief executive power of the State, shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold his office for the term of four years; and no person shall be eligible to such office more than Eight, in any period of twelve years.

Section No. 2.
No person except a citizen of the United States shall be eligible to the office of Governor, nor shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and who shall not have been three years next preceding his election, a resident within this State.

Section No. 3.
No member of Congress, or person holding any office under the United States, or under this State, or under any other power, shall fill the Office of Governor, except as may be otherwise provided in this Constitution.
Section No. 4.
The Governor shall be elected by the qualified Electors of the State at the times and places of choosing members of the Legislative Assembly; and the returns of every Election for Governor, shall be sealed up, and transmitted to the Secretary of State; directed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall open and publish them in the presence of both houses of the Legislative Assembly.

Section No. 5.
The person having the highest number of votes for Governor, shall be elected; but in case two or more persons shall have an equal number of votes for Governor, the two houses of the Legislative Assembly at the next regular session thereof, shall forthwith by joint vote, proceed to elect one of the said persons Governor.

Section No. 6.
Contested elections for Governor shall be determined by the Legislative Assembly in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Section No. 7.
The official term of the Governor shall be four years; and shall commence at such times as may be prescribed by this Constitution, or prescribed by law.

Section No. 8

In case of the Removal of the Governor from Office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the duties of the Office, the same shall devolve on the Secretary of State; and in case of the removal from Office, death, resignation, or inability both of the Governor and Secretary of State, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor, until the disability be removed or a Governor be elected.

Section No. 9.

The Governor shall be Commander in Chief of the Military, and Naval forces of this State, and may call out such forces to execute the laws, to suppress insurrection, or to repel invasion.

Section No. 10.

He shall take care that the Laws be faithfully executed.

Section No. 11.

He shall from time to time give to the Legislative Assembly information touching the condition of the State, and recommend such measures as he shall judge to be expedient.
Section No. 12.

He may on extraordinary occasions convene the Legislative Assembly by proclamation, and shall state to both houses when assembled, the purpose for which they shall have been convened.

Section No. 13.

He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government, and may require information in writing from the officers of the Administrative and Military Departments upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

Section No. 14.

He shall have power to grant or refuse commutations, and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses except treason, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by law. Upon conviction for treason, he shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence until the case shall be reported to the Legislative Assembly, at its next meeting, when the Legislative Assembly shall either grant a pardon, commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve.

He shall have power to remit fines, and forfeitures, under such regulations as may be prescribed.
by law; and shall report to the Legislative Assembly at its next meeting each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted, and the reasons for granting the same; and also the names of all persons in whose favor remissions of fines, and forfeitures shall have been made, and the several amounts remitted.

Section No. 15.

Every bill which shall have passed the Legislative Assembly, shall, before it becomes a law be presented to the Governor, if he approve he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon the journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two thirds of the members present shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of the members present, it shall become a law. But in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively; if any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within five days, Sundays excepted, after it shall have been presented to him, it shall be a law without his signature, unless the general adjournment shall prevent its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless the Governor, within five days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, shall file such bill, with his objections thereto, in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall lay the same before the Legislative Assembly at its next session, in like manner as if it had been returned by the Governor. —

Section 16.

When during a recess of the Legislative Assembly a vacancy shall happen in any office, the appointment to which is vested in the Legislative Assembly; or when, at any time, a vacancy shall have occurred in any other State office, or in the office of judge of any Court, the Governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall expire when a successor shall have been elected and qualified. —

Section 17.

He shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies as may have occurred in the Legislative Assembly.
Section No. 18.

All commissions shall issue in the name of the State; shall be signed by the Governor, sealed with the seal of the State, and attested by the Secretary of State.
Article VI.

Administrative Department

Section No. 1.

There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State, at the times and places of choosing members of the Legislative Assembly, a Secretary and Treasurer of State, who shall severally hold their offices for the term of four years; but no person shall be eligible to either of said offices for more than eight in any period of twelve years.

Section No. 2.

The Secretary of State shall keep a fair record of the official acts of the Legislative Assembly, and Executive Department of the State; and shall when required, lay the same, and all matters relative thereto, before either branch of the Legislative Assembly. He shall be by virtue of his office, Auditor of Public Accounts, and shall perform such other duties, as shall be assigned him by law.
Section N°3.
There shall be a seal of State, kept by the Secretary of State for official purposes, which shall be called "the seal of the State of Oregon." —

Section N°4.
The powers and duties of the Treasurer of State shall be such as may be prescribed by law. —

Section N°5.
The Governor, and the Secretary, and Treasurer of State shall severally keep the public records, books and papers in any manner relating to their respective offices, at the seat of government, at which place also, the Secretary of State shall reside. —

Section N°6.
There shall be elected in each county, by the qualified electors thereof, at the time of holding general elections, a County Clerk, Treasurer, Sheriff, Sheriff, Coroner, and Surveyor, who shall severally hold their offices for the term of two years. —

Section N°7.
Such other county, township, precinct, and city officers as may be necessary, shall be elected, or appointed in such manner as may be prescribed by law.
Section No. 8.

No person shall be elected, or appointed to a county office, who shall not be an elector of the County; and all County, Township, precinct, and City officers shall keep their respective offices at such places therein, and perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

Section No. 9.

Vacancies in County, Township, precinct, and City offices shall be filled in such manner as may be prescribed by law.
Article vii.

The Judicial Department

Section No. 1.

The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Supreme Court, Circuit Courts, and County Courts, which shall be courts of record, having general jurisdiction, to be defined, limited, and regulated by law in accordance with the Constitution. Justices of the Peace may also be invested with limited judicial powers, and Municipal Courts may be created to administer the regulations of incorporated towns and cities.

Section No. 2.

The Supreme Court shall consist of four Justices to be chosen in districts by the electors thereof, who shall be citizens of the United States, and who shall have resided in the State at least three years next preceding their election, and after their election to reside in their respective districts. The number of Justices, and Districts may be increased, but shall not exceed five until the white population of the State shall amount to One Hundred Thousand and shall never exceed seven; and the boundaries of districts may be changed, but no change of districts shall have the effect to remove a judge from office, or require him to change his residence without his consent.

Section 2
The judges first chosen under this Constitution shall allot among themselves their terms of office, so that the term of one of them shall expire in two years, one in four years, and two in six years, and thereafter, one or more shall be chosen every two years to serve for the term of six years.

Section 3
Every vacancy in the office of judge of the Supreme Court shall be filled by election for the remainder of the vacant term, unless it would expire at the next election, and until so filled, or when it would so expire, the Governor shall fill the vacancy by appointment.

Section 4
The judge who has the shortest term to serve, or the oldest of several having such shortest term, and not holding by appointment shall be the Chief Justice.
Section No. 6.

The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction only to revise the final decisions of the Circuit Courts, and every cause shall be tried, and every decision shall be made by those judges only, or a majority of them, who did not try the cause; or make the decision in the Circuit Court.

Section No. 7.

The terms of the Supreme Court shall be appointed by law; but there shall be one term at the seat of Government annually; and at the close of each term the judges shall file with the Secretary of State concise written statements of the decisions made at that term.

Section No. 8.

The Circuit Courts shall be held twice at least in each year in each county organized for judicial purposes, by one of the justices of the Supreme Court at times to be appointed by law; and at such other times as may be appointed by the judges severally in pursuance of law.
Section X. Q.

All judicial power, authority, and jurisdiction not vested by this Constitution, or by laws consistent therewith, exclusively in some other court shall belong to the Circuit Courts, and they shall have appellate jurisdiction, and supervisory control over the county courts and all other inferior courts, officers, and tribunals.

Section X. 10.

When the white population of the State shall amount to Two Hundred Thousand, the Legislative Assembly may provide for the election of Supreme and Circuit judges in distinct classes, one of which classes shall consist of three justices of the Supreme Court who shall not perform circuit duty, and the other class shall consist of the necessary number of circuit judges, who shall hold full terms without allotment and who shall take the same oath as the Supreme judges.
Section No 11.
There shall be elected in each county for the term of four years a county judge, who shall hold the county court at times to be regulated by law.

Section No 12.
The county court shall have the jurisdiction pertaining to probate courts and boards of county commissioners, and such other powers and duties, and such civil jurisdiction not exceeding the amount or value of five hundred dollars, and such criminal jurisdiction not extending to death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, as may be prescribed by law. But the legislative assembly may provide for the election of the commissioners to sit with the county judge whilst transacting county business in any or all of the counties, or may provide a separate board for transacting such business.

Section No 13.
The county judge may grant preliminary injunctions, and such other writs as the legislative assembly may authorize him to grant, returnable to the circuit court or otherwise as may be provided by law; and may hear, and decide questions arising upon habeas corpus; provided such decision be not against the authority, or proceedings of a Court or Judge of Equal, or higher Jurisdiction.

Section No. 17.
There shall be elected by districts comprised of one, or more counties, a sufficient number of prosecuting attorneys who shall be the law officers of the State, and of the counties within their respective districts, and shall perform such duties pertaining to the administration of law, and general police as the Legislative Assembly may direct.

Section No. 18.
The Legislative Assembly shall so provide that the most competent of the permanent citizens of the county shall be chosen for one and out of the whole number in attendance at the Court, seven shall be chosen by lot as grand jurors, five of whom must concur to find an indictment: But the Legislative Assembly may modify or abolish grand juries.
Section No. 19.

Public Officers shall not be impeached, but incompetency, corruption, malfeasance, or delinquency in office may be tried in the same manner as criminal offences, and judgment may be given of dismissal from office and such further punishment as may have been prescribed by law.

Section No. 20.

The Governor may remove from Office a Judge of the Supreme Court, or Prosecuting Attorney upon the joint resolution of the Legislative Assembly, in which two thirds of the members elected to each house shall concur, for incompetency, corruption, malfeasance, or delinquency in office, or other sufficient cause stated in such resolution.

Section No. 21.

Every judge of the Supreme Court before entering upon the duties of his office shall take, subscribe, and transmit to the Secretary of State the following oath: —
I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the State of Oregon, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of a Judge of the Supreme, and Circuit Courts of said State according to the best of my ability; and that I will not accept any other office, except judicial office, during the term for which I have been elected.
Article VIII.

Education and School Lands

Section No. 1.

The Governor shall be superintendent of public instruction, and his powers and duties in that capacity shall be such as may be prescribed by law; but after the term of five years from the adoption of this Constitution, it shall be competent for the Legislative Assembly to provide by law for the election of a superintendent, to provide for his compensation and prescribe his powers and duties.

Section No. 2.

Article XVI

Boundaries.

In order that the boundaries of the State may be known and established, it is hereby ordained and declared that the State of Oregon shall be bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning one marine league at sea, due west from the point where the forty second parallel of North latitude intersects the same; thence Northerly at the same distance from the line of the coast, lying west and opposite the State including all islands within the jurisdiction of the United States to a point due west, and opposite the middle of the North Ship Channel of the Columbia River; thence Easterly to and up the middle channel of said River, and when it is divided by islands, up the middle of the widest channel thereof, and in like manner up the middle of the main channel of Snake River, to the mouth of the Owyhee River; thence due South to the parallel of latitude forty two degrees North; thence West, along said parallel to the place of beginning, including jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases upon the Columbia River, and Snake River, concurrently with States and Territories of which those Rivers form a boundary in common with this State.

But the Congress of the United States, in providing for the admission of this State into the Union, may make the said Northern boundary, conform to the act creating the Territory of Washington.
Article XVII.

Amendments

Section No. 1.

Any amendment, or amendments, to this Constitution may be proposed in either branch of the Legislative Assembly, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each of the two Houses, such proposed amendment, or amendments, shall with the same, and maps thereof, be entered on their journals, and referred to the Legislative Assembly to be shown at the next general election; and if, in the Legislative Assembly so met, such proposed amendment, or amendments, shall be agreed to, by a majority of all the members elected to either House, then it shall be the duty of the Legislative Assembly to submit such amendment, or amendments, to the electors of the State, and cause the same to be published without delay, at least four consecutive weeks, in several newspapers published in this State, and if a majority of said electors shall ratify the same, such amendment, or amendments, shall become a part of the Constitution.
Section No 2.

If two or more amendments shall be submitted in such manner, that the electors shall vote for, or against, each of such amendments separately; and while an amendment or amendments, which shall have been agreed upon by the Legislative Assembly, shall be awaiting the action of a Legislative Assembly, or of the electors, no additional amendment, or amendments shall be proposed.
Article XVIII
Schedule.

Section No. 1.
For the purpose of taking the vote of the electors of the State for the acceptance or rejection of this Constitution, an election shall be held on the second Monday of November, in the year 1849 to be conducted according to existing laws regulating the election of Delegates to Congress, so far as applicable, except as herein otherwise provided.

Section No. 2.
Each elector who offers to vote upon this Constitution, shall be asked by the judges of election the questions:
Do you vote for the Constitution? Yes or No.
And also this question:
Do you vote for Slavery in Oregon? Yes or No.
And also this question:
Do you vote for free Negroes in Oregon? Yes or No.
And in the poll books shall be columns headed respectively:
"Constitution, Yes." "Constitution, No."
"Free Negroes, Yes." "Free Negroes, No."
"Slavery, Yes." "Slavery, No."
And the names of the electors shall be entered in the poll books, together...
with their answers to the said questions, under their respective hands.
The abstracts of the votes transmitted to the Secretary of the Territory shall be publicly opened, and canvassed by the Governor and Secretary or by either of them in the absence of the other; and the Governor, in his absence, the Secretary, shall forthwith issue his proclamation, and publish the same in the several newspapers printed in the State, declaring the result of the said election upon each said questions. —

Section No. 3.
If a majority of all the votes given for, and against the Constitution, shall be given for the Constitution, then this Constitution shall be deemed to be approved, and accepted by the electors of the State, and shall take effect accordingly; and if a majority of such votes shall be given against the Constitution, then this Constitution shall be deemed to be rejected by the electors of the State, and shall be void. —

Section No. 4.
If this Constitution shall be accepted by the electors, and a majority of all the votes given for, and against slavery, shall be given for slavery, then the following section shall be added to the Bill of Rights, and shall be part of this Constitution:
Sec. — "Persons lawfully held as slaves in any State, Territory, or District of the United States, under the laws thereof, maybe brought into this State, and such Slaves, and their descendants may be held as slaves within this State, and shall not be emancipated without the consent of their owners.
And if a majority of such votes shall be given against slavery, then the foregoing section shall not, but the following sections shall be added to the Bill of Rights, and shall be part of this Constitution:
Sec. — There shall be neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude in the State, otherwise than as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted.
And if a majority of all the votes given for, and against free negroes, shall be given against free negroes, then the following section shall be added to the Bill of Rights, and shall be part of this Constitution:
Sec. — No free negro, or mulatto, not residing in this State at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall come, reside, or be within this State, or hold any real estate, or make any contract, or maintain any suit therein; and the Legislative Assembly shall provide by penal laws, for the removal, by peace officers, of all such negroes and mulattoes, and for their effectual exclusion from the State, and for the punishment of persons who shall bring them into the State, or employ or harbor them.

Section 20.
