Congratulations on registering your business with the State of Oregon. Your Articles of Formation have been filed with the Secretary of State of Oregon and are complete. You have one step left in order to attain your elective Oregon Certificate of Standing (also known as a Certificate of Existence). You will also receive a package containing corporate agreement templates for your business that can be used in a variety of situations for your company. Below is a form for your newly registered business and please confirm the accuracy of the information for your Oregon Certificate of Standing request with corporate template agreements.

An Oregon Certificate of Standing attests to the legal status of business entities such as corporations and limited liability companies operating in Oregon. These certificates are certified under the seal of the Oregon Secretary of State and serve as legal documents. An Oregon Certificate of Standing may be required for loans, to renew business licenses, or for tax and other business purposes. It certifies that your Oregon business is in existence, is authorized to transact business in the state and complies with all state requirements.

Banks will often require a Certificate of Standing from a business both when opening bank accounts as well as when obtaining financing and the Certificate of Standing is also often required when doing business with other states. The Certificate of Standing bears the official seal of the Oregon Secretary of State.
