→ For committees active in an election, transactions that occur between the 42nd day before the election and Election Day are due no later than seven calendar days after the date of the transaction. A transaction that occurs prior to the 42nd day before the election and has not been filed by the 43rd day before the election is due not later than 30 calendar days after the date of the transaction or by the 35th day before the election, whichever date occurs first.

→ The deadline for filing transactions is not later than 11:59:00 pm on the day the transaction is due. If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the transaction is due not later than 11:59:00 pm on the next business day.

 See page 6 of the Campaign Finance Manual for information on how to calculate the deadline for filing a Certificate of Limited Contributions and Expenditures or detailed transactions if a candidate is exempt from filing a candidate committee but then exceeds the $750 threshold of campaign finance activity.

See “Certificate of Limited Contributions and Expenditures (PC 7)” on page 15 of the Campaign Finance Manual for information on how to calculate the deadline for filing transactions if a committee has exceeded the $3,500 threshold after filing a Certificate of Limited Contributions and Expenditures for a calendar year.

See page 18 of the Campaign Finance Manual for the deadlines to report contributions received during a legislative session, and who is subject to those deadlines.

 All committees are considered active at the Primary and General Elections. See page 17 of the Campaign Finance Manual to determine if a committee is eligible to opt out of seven day reporting for those elections
